No. of Printed Pages—2

61 (SAM)

[18–HRGPKAC–M3S]

MSW 3rd Semester Exam., 2018

SOCIAL ACTION AS A METHOD OF SOCIAL WORK AND NGOs

[MSW (S3) 11]

Full Marks : 80

Time : 3 hours

The figures in the margin indicate full marks for the questions

1. Answer any five of the following questions (each within 50 words) : 2×5=10

(a) Define and differentiate social work from social action.

(b) State the meaning of 'Westrational Action'.

(c) List down the types of Advocacy.

(d) Why is it that NGOs are more successful than governments in organizing the rural poor?

(e) State the limitations of NGOs.

(f) Prescribe at least five essential procedures to be adapted in fund-raising.

2. Answer any three from the following questions (each within 150 words) : 4×3=12

(a) Narrate the main norms of social movements.

(b) What does the 'butterflies programme' constitute? State its principles and strategies.

(c) Narrate briefly the four tools for advocacy and expression of public opinion.

(d) Describe how NGOs can be effective catalysts of social change, based on the example of 'the Adgaon Project of MSSM'.

3. Answer any three from the following questions (each within 250 words) : 6×3=18

(a) Elucidate the difference between the theory of social action and behaviourism as explained by Talcott Parsons.

(b) Briefly explain what is meant by social movement.

(c) Discuss the income and expenditure patterns of social welfare organizations.

(d) Prescribe few strategies to be adapted in tribal settings for social action.

4. Answer any four from the following questions (each within 500 words) : 10×4=40

(a) Explain the various strategies of social action based on women's movements, Chipko Movement and Narmada Bachao Andolan.

(b) State the meaning of NGOs. Explain the formation, promotion and management of NGOs. 2+8=10

(c) Justify the need of NGOs to be ethically right in their procedures and execution. In this context, prescribe the principles and values NGOs should display in their problem solving and decision-making process. 4+6=10

(d) "Professional development is a sign in the right direction." Substantiate this view by deliberating the five basic constituents of professional social work.

(e) Briefly explain the 'use and misuse' of 'strikes and hartals' as forms of protest in the context of North-East India. Give examples.

★★★