non-formal mode of education. More particularly the NGO Save Guwahati and Build Guwahati (SGBG) has demanded survey of the hills, wetlands and plain lands of the Guwahati city.

Ans to Q No 3: Environmental Education is a subject closely associated with the problem of socio-economic development of the developing and under-developed countries of the world and its people. These countries are confronted with the major problems of population explosion, illiteracy, cultural and religious conservatism, economic poverty and unemployment etc. that have lead them to environmental pollution and degradation.

14.7 MODEL QUESTIONS

A) Very Short Questions (Answer each question in about 50 words)

Q1: Define Environmental Education.

Q2: What does Article 48-A of Indian Constitution state regarding Environmental Education?

Q3: What does Article 51 (g) of the Indian Constitution state regarding Environmental Education?

B) Short Questions (Answer each question in about 150 words)

Q1: Mention any five important problems of Environmental Education.

Q2: Explain the role of NGO in providing Environmental Education.

Q3: Discuss in brief the specific environmental problems with special reference to Assam.

C) Long Questions ((Answer each question in about 300 words)

Q1: Discuss in detail the important environmental problems with special reference to Assam.

Q2: Elaborate the various prospects of Environmental Education.

Q3: Discuss the provision of Environmental Education with special reference to Assam.

*** ***** ***