Answer to Q.3: The name of the first stage is the Aesthetic stage.

Answer to Q.4: Man in the ethical stage is more rational.

Answer to Q.5: Religious stage is regarded as the highest stage. This sentence is true.

10.10: MODEL QUESTIONS

A: Very short questions

Q.1: Write the name of any one book of Kierkegaard.

Q.2: Which stage is regarded as the most delicate and least stable of all forms?

Q.3: What is the most essential feature of ethical stage?

Q.4: Write the names of two forms of religions.

B: Short questions (Write in about 100-150 words)

Q.1: What is existence, according to Kierkegaard? Explain in brief

Q.2: Discuss briefly the arrangement of the three stages.

Q.3: Write a brief note on aesthetic man.

Q.4: Explain the differences between the aesthetic man and the ethical man.

Q.5: Explain in brief the religious sphere of existence.

C: Long questions (Write in about 300 -500 words)

Q.1: Explain Kierkegaard's doctrine of the three stages of existence.

Q.2: 'The aesthetic stage is a dead-end road.' Explain.

Q.3: Why the ethical stage is regarded as the stage of choosing oneself?

*** ***** ***