the happier divisions of society, who were worried about issues of safeguarding or the board of the wild, and whose evaluate of society did not for the most part go past these worries.

5.8 FURTHER READING

1) Moore, E. C. (1913). The Liberal Movement and Missions. The American Journal of Theology Vol. 17, (No. 1), pp. 22-46

5.9 ANSWERS TO CHECK YOUR PROGRESS

Ans to Q No 1: The historian and social reformer, Ignaz Jastrow.

Ans to Q No 2: Adam Smith.

Ans to Q No3: L. T. Hobhouse, John A. Hobson.

5.10 MODEL QUESTIONS

Short Questions (Answer each question within 150 words)

Q1. What is economic liberal theory?

Q2. Discuss the overview of liberal approach to social movement.

Long Questions (Answer each question within 300-500 words)

Q1. What is social liberal theory?

Q2. What is environmental movement?